Janet Sporle, Leader, People Team, Europe, Dun & Bradstreet

'We have used this workshop for confidence, presentation skills and team building extensively for members of our Women's Network. Stand up to Stand Out is fast paced, fun and suitable for people of all levels of seniority and professional background. It offers practical skills to use straight away in your day job as well as being a great vehicle to get your delegates talking to each other.'

Misa von Tunzelman, Global Marketing Director - HR & Sustainability, JLL

'We briefed Funny Women to deliver a workshop for our women's network focusing on confidence in communication. The soft skills employed were fun and engaging and the opportunity to test the barriers of your comfort zone in a safe creative space are invaluable in business life. Highly recommended.'

Nicola Grant, Head of Marketing, UK & Ireland, MasterCard Worldwide

'I attended Lynne's 'Stand Up to Stand Out' corporate workshop last summer. The style of the session was warm and enjoyable whilst being business focused. I found the workshop fun and liberating. It made me think differently about how I structure my 'story-telling', has encouraged me to build some humour into my client presentations and has made me feel generally more confident when standing up in front of an audience.'

Tracey Barr, Strategy Consultant

'I am passionate about women having a voice whether that be in comedy or the workplace. So, I have created this partnership offer which gives you the opportunity to combine a great night out with some entertaining and practical training for your business. This is where my two worlds collide and I would love it you could help me to help raise some much needed funding for our biggest event of the year. Thank you.'
